

SHORT BIO:

ML Morlock is a passionate Kingdom leader. As a servant of Jesus, itinerant speaker and worship leader, ML delivers inspired messages of God's transforming love through teaching and song. Her persona has made her known as the "Bette Midler in the Spirit". Her song is powerful in nature, and worshipful from a heart that's been broken and repaired. When she ministers in music, the Holy Spirit uses her to take you deep into the river. When she ministers through teaching, ML displays a direct, spunky, playful side. Her sense of humor has kept rooms of people laughing and engaged. She says, "God has an incredible sense of humor. He and I laugh together all the time!"

ML holds an MA in Education from Auburn University, an ESL endorsement and is currently working on her Doctorate in Theology. She taught in public schools in the southeast for 20 years, as well as abroad in Ecuador. She's a recording artist, an ordained minister, and founder of Behind Me Now, a dedicated female prison ministry focusing on inmate mentorship for those transitioning back into society. ML is a department head at Artists in Christian Testimony, Intl. She is single and resides in Nashville, TN.
